

PATH TO EXILE

( PRESS RELEASE 2024 )

Path To Exile is heading into the new year with new tunes in the works. They finished up 2023 with some integral changes to the bands structure. Path To Exile wished their bassist Sven well into his new musical venture as they welcomed their newest member, Zachary, who will take on lead and rhythm guitar along with Brain and Chris.

Path To Exile finished strong in 2023 with the recording of two demos (99 Ways Through hell and I Kill All). They played a record 14 shows along the East Coast with some of the best metal bands from the region.

Path To Exile's newest demo, Death From Above, is set to release in early 2024 and an entirely new set list in the works. Their first self-titled album will release in Fall of 2024. Path To Exile will be hard at work in the studio this year and are excited to play the Thrash and Splash Festival in June 2024!

Please reach out to our booking team to book future shows, order merch, and for more information.